INSTITUTE FOR PAYER CONFIGURATION

EXAM ONLY | INDIVIDUAL ASSESSMENT

Advanced Payer Configuration Credential Exam

Demonstrate your knowledge through a standalone credential examination.

What is this examination?

An examination-only pathway for individuals who are ready to demonstrate advanced payer configuration competency. Training and a course completion certificate are not included. The professional credential is awarded only after the applicable assessment requirements are met.

What will be covered?

- Advanced configuration architecture, contract hierarchy and reimbursement logic.
- Cross-product and effective-date conflicts and complex dependencies.
- Root-cause diagnosis: configuration defects versus claim data, workflow and history issues.
- Remediation options, reprocessing scope, financial impact and operational risk.
- Apply SAVOIR methods through practical learning.

Examination at a glance

- Existing program specification: 175 questions and a three-hour examination.
- Individual exam fee: USD $1,000.
- Confirm current eligibility, scheduling, assessment instructions and examination requirements with SAVOIR before registering.

Applied context for preparation

A hospital APR-DRG contract amendment interacts with a shared pricing rule, producing cross-product payment errors. Participants isolate the defect, scope exposure and substantiate remediation.

Choose the timing that fits you

You may purchase a certificate program and its examination at different times, or purchase a Combined Pathway together for scheduling and purchasing flexibility. Certificate completion alone does not award a professional credential. Review the selected offering, current fee and examination requirements before registering.

Organizational licensing

Standalone exams are available for individual purchase only. SAVOIR does not license exam-only offerings to organizations. Organizational licenses cover certificate programs; an exam can be included only when the organization purchases a combined certificate-and-exam package.
